

MY CAT

I wouldn't want to pet my cat it scratches as I take a bath,
It drinks my gingerale,
It scares my pets until their pale My cat can climb up high, until it reaches the sky
But if you think he's fun in games
You are wrong
he's not that way.

IN HONOR OF MAX "PIG"

You see him in store, roasted pork or more,
Ham with mustard seeds,
Or bacon with swiss cheese
Every body knows, that after a pig goes the bam won't be full, but your stomach will be full.

IN HONOR OF BABE A FAT DUCK

Fat ducks are on my meal they cost quite a good deal.
They go good with cheddar cheese
And go good with dried snow peas Some people eat them fried with chick peas on the side
But I do not agree,
I would eat a fat ducky.
