

SOME DAYS

Some days are cold and dry with clouds filled in the sky, when others are hot and blue with beaches of blue too.
Coldness comes along,
while spring sings its song,
Some days are black and bold while others are bright and gold.

TODAYS FUN

Today's fun has begun
A seagull swooping high and low
A person waving down below
A lollipop all sweet and nice
A popsicle all sweet and like ice
A caramel and popcorn stand
And Cand Co's candy made by hand
With water flowing on a beach
With wave caps as white as bleach,
So now you know my forecast of fun,
But that was just the fun that begun.

MY GARDEN

My garden stands as tall as me
Like trees with branches and leaves
An acre of full gardening land with fine thick mulch
and yellow sand
It lets me plant my yellow peas
But also I see my chickadees
Flying high, I see them fly....
In my garden
I feed my sappy oak trees
I also feed on my happy trees.
And I'm that happy tree,
That started as a seed.
